Lutte New Brunswick Wrestling Members Honoured at Konica Minolta Sport Awards

Fredericton – November 24, 2014

Two members of Lutte New Brunswick Wrestling were honoured at the 2014 Konica Minolta Sport Awards last night at the Crowne Plaza Lord Beaverbrook Hotel in Fredericton, NB.

Shawn Daye-Finley (pictured with family) was named the winner of the Comfort Inn Male Athlete of the Year Award, which is presented to the New Brunswick male athlete who performed outstanding in the past season. Shawn was chosen after placing 2nd at the 2014 Senior Canadian Championships, and being named to Team Canada for the FISU World Championships.

Mikael Rousseau was the second winner of the night, as he was named President's Award -Male. The award is presented to one male and one female athlete, who is under the age of 19 years of age, that exemplifies the spirit and future of sport in New Brunswick. Mikael had an outstanding season, winning numerous tournaments. Mikael topped off his year by winning the FILA Cadet Greco-Roman Trails, which earned him a spot on the Canadian Cadet Greco-Roman Team that competed at the Cadet Pan-American Championships this past summer.
