O'Toole Bronze, Hibbert & Rousseau 4th at Cadet Pan American Championships

Fredericton – July 6, 2015

One New Brunswick athlete has a new medal to add to their collection. On July 3, Chris O'Toole of the Hampton Wrestling Club, Austin Hibbert of Kent Wrestling Club, and Mikeal Rousseau of Club de Lutte Acadie Bathurst competed as members of the Canadian National Team at the 2015 Cadet Pan American Championship in Guadalajara, Mexico. O'Toole finished in 3rd place, while both Hibbert and Rousseau placed 4th. All three athletes competed in Greco-Roman.

O'Toole, who competed in the 100kg men's division, dropped his first match to Mexico, and his second to Cohlton Schultz of the United States by pin to finish the tournament with a bronze medal.

Hibbert wrestled in the 58kg men's division and went 1-3 at the event to finish 4th. Hibbert lost his first match to Taylor LaMont of the United States by technical fall (1-10). Hibbert lost to Mexico by a pin and Puerto Rico by technical fall (4-13), before defeating Colombia by pin.

Rousseau, who wrestled in the 63kg men's division, also finished the event with a record of 1-3 to place 4th. Rousseau dropped his first 3 matches by technical fall. He first wrestled Kanen Storr of the United States (0-8), then Mexico (0-8), and Peru (0-8). Rousseau concluded the event with a win over Brazil by technical fall (8-0).

Lutte New Brunswick Wrestling would like to congratulate these young men on their accomplishments at this event.
