Jones and Pomeroy Named Assistant Coaches for New Brunswick's 2017 Canada Games Wrestling Teams

Fredericton – February 3, 2016

Lutte New Brunswick Wrestling is pleased to announce the appointments of Jeff Jones and Terry Pomeroy as the Assistant Coaches for New Brunswick's 2017 Canada Games Wrestling Teams. Jones, of Moncton, will serve as the assistant for the men's team, while Pomeroy, of St. Stephen, will serve as the assistant for the women's squad. Both will help lead their respected teams to the 2017 Canada Summer Games set for August 10 – 12, 2017, in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Jones is returning for his third straight Canada Games appointment. Jones previously served as the Assistant Coach for the 2009 Men's Team and the 2013 Women's Team. He is currently the Head Coach at the Moncton based Mountaintop Wrestling Club, and has led numerous high school programs throughout the region. Jones will add his experience to the program as he works with Head Coach Sean MacIsaac.

Pomeroy will be making his Canada Games coaching debut in 2017. Though he had previously served as the manager for the 2001 Canada Games Men's Team, this will be Pomeroy's first coaching assignment for Team New Brunswick. However, Pomeroy has a wealth of experience at both the national and international level that will greatly benefit the program. Pomeroy has previously served as an assistant coach for the Canadian National Women's and Men's Team in 2008 and 2009. He was also an assistant coach at the University of New Brunswick from 1999 to 2010. Pomeroy will be working with Head Coach Krista Betts.

The 2017 Canada Summer Games will mark the 50th anniversary of the event, which were first held in Quebec City in 1967. The Games are the nation's largest multi-sport competition for young athletes, and will feature Canada's up and coming talent.
