Lutte New Brunswick Wrestling has unveiled their line up for the 2016 U18 Wrestling Team. The Program, which is a new offering from the organization, was developed to provide promising young wrestlers from across the province with an opportunity to receive their first taste of elite training and international competition.

The men's team will consist of Maxime Doucet of Roberville, Kane Wetmore of Oromocto, Samuel Jean of Pointe Verte, Alex Cormier of St-Louis-de-kent, Marco Cormier of St-Louis-de-kent, Austin Hibbert of Richibucto, John-Luc Landry of St. Stephen, Mikael Rousseau of Allardville, Issac Acker of Riverview, and Justin Shannon of Moncton.

The women's team will be comprised of Annabelle Boudreau of Beresford, Tania Blanchard of Sormany, Destiny Bigger of St. Stephen, Courtney Hibbert of Richibucto, Elena Sehic of Fredericton, Jasmine Thebeau of Rexton, Madalynn Whalen of Bass River, Madison Beerenfenger of Oromocto, Maryse Arseneau of Nigadoo, and Felysha Doucette-Daigle of Kouchibouguac.

The men's team will be led by Canada Games Head Coach Sean MacIsaac, and Assistant Coach Jeff Jones, while the women's program will be led by Head Coach Krista Betts and Assistant Coach Terry Pomeroy.

The team was selected from a strong group of applicants. New Brunswick wrestlers were eligible for consideration if they placed as one of the top two NB Athletes at the 2016 New Brunswick Open in Hampton, New Brunswick, or medaled at the 2016 Cadet / Juvenile Canadian Championships in Calgary, Alberta.

This group of athletes will now meet for two exclusive training camps, and travel to Maine for the Down-East Dual on June 18-19. They will cap off their summer at the 2016 Atlantic Regional Wrestling Camp in Fredericton, NB.
