NB ATHLETES NAMED TO UNIVERSITY WORLD TEAM

CLEAVES, STEWART, & THOMS TO REPRESENT CANADA IN TURKEY

49 NORTH WRESTLING

OCTOBER 15, 2016
FREDERICTON, NB

On October 14, 2016, Wrestling Canada Lutte announced the team members competing October 25-30, 2016 at the 2016 FISU World University Championships in Corum, Turkey. Amongst the eight men and seven women named were three wrestlers from Fredericton.

Allyssa Cleaves (Women's 48kg), Samantha Stewart (Women's 53kg), and Alex Thoms (Men's 97kg) will all travel to Corum to compete for Canada against the world's top university wrestlers. All three athletes currently attend the University of New Brunswick in Fredericton, and train with the Black Bears Wrestling Club.

Cleaves is currently a fourth year Civil Engineering student, while Stewart is in her second year of her Master's of Education in Counselling, and Thoms is in his third year of a Bachelor of Science in Economics.

Thoms will be the first New Brunswick wrestler to compete, as the Men's 97kg division will compete on October 25. Cleaves will then compete on October 27, and Stewart will wrestle on October 28.
