Canada's top talent was on display yesterday at the University of New Brunswick's Aitken Centre as the Black Bear's Wrestling Club hosted the 2016 Canadian Junior Championships. Nine New Brunswick wrestlers took to the mats, with five of them placing in the top six.

Darrion Sterling of the Black Bears Wrestling Club earned the lone medal of the event, finishing second in the Women's 67kg division. Sterling finished the round robin 3-1, and will now represent Canada on the Junior National B Team.

Also in the women's division; Tania Blanchard & Maryse Arseneau of Club de Lutte Acadie Bathurst placed fourth in the 48kg and 72kg weight classes, while Black Bears' Kennedy MacIsaac finished sixth in 48kg.

Nic Goleniec was the only male competitor to crack the top six. Goleniec, of the Black Bears Wrestling Club, placed sixth in the 84kg division.

Wrestling will continue today at the Aitken Centre with the Senior Canadian Championships.
