FREDERICTON, NB

Lutte New Brunswick Wrestling is excited to announce the appointment of Randy Smith of the Village of Gagetown, New Brunswick as the Manager of both the Men's and Women's New Brunswick Wrestling Teams for the 2017 Canada Summer Games. Smith brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the position, which will help support New Brunswick's strong tradition of excellence in wrestling at the games.

Smith has been involved in wrestling for over 40 years as an athlete, coach, official, and administrator. Amongst other accomplishments, he has served as a coach of the Oromocto High School Wrestling Team, the Black Bears Wrestling Club, and the University of New Brunswick's Wrestling program, and is a nationally ranked Official. Smith recently served as Manager for Team New Brunswick at the 2009 Canada Games, where the team earned five medals.

As Manager, Smith will be responsible for coordinating and providing program support to Men's and Women's New Brunswick Wrestling Team's' Coaching Staff, and ensuring communication amongst all stakeholders of the program.

Smith 's selection rounds out New Brunswick Wrestling Teams' staff, which includes Krista Betts of Bass River (Women's Head Coach), Sean MacIsaac of Riverview (Men's Head Coach), Terry Pomeroy of St. Stephen (Women's Assistant Coach), and Jeff Jones of Moncton (Men's Assistant Coach).

Please join us in welcoming Randy Smith to the Men's and Women's New Brunswick Wrestling Teams for the 2017 Canada Summer Games in his role as Manager.
