For New Brunswick wrestlers a gold medal hanging from their neck was a common sight this past weekend at the 2016 PEI Open in Charlottetown. The tournament, which was held April 2 in the Chi-Wan Young Sports Centre at the University of Prince Edward Island, featured teams from across the Maritime Provinces.

Both Black Bears Wrestling Club and Mountaintop Wrestling Club were in attendance at the event. The Black Bears finished with three golds, two silvers, and a bronze medal, while Mountaintop captured seven golds, a bronze, and a fourth place finish.

Amongst the individual gold medal winners were Coen Breau, Samuel Acker, Kara Steeves, Thomas Lipton, Kai LeBlanc, Isaac LeBlanc, and Shelby MacIsaac for Mountaintop, and Mike Smith, Elena Sehic, and Madison Beerenfenger for the Black Bears. Both Jonathan Morrison and Brooke Sacobie of Black Bears earned silvers, and Kane Wetmore of the Black Bears and Haley Johnson of Mountaintop finished with bronze medals.

The Black Bears captured the team title in the Bantam Girls division, While Mountaintop finished third in Kids Boys, Kids Girls, and Bantam Girls.
