UNB Invitational & Eastern Canadian Championships Attracts Athletes of All Ages

Fredericton – February 2, 2016

By the time Saturday evening arrived over 150 athletes from ages 9 and up had stepped on the mats in the Richard J. Currie Center on University of New Brunswick's Fredericton Campus. The UNB Wrestling Invitational and the Eastern Canadian Championships, which are held each year on the last Saturday of January, attracted athletes from across New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Quebec, and Maine.

The day began with the UNB Wrestling Invitational. The event featured University athletes from the University of New Brunswick, Concordia University, and University of Maine, as well as other Senior and Junior club athletes from the region. The host team secured the team titles in both Men's and Women's divisions. Mountaintop Wrestling Club, from Moncton, tied for second in the Men's division with YHMA Montreal, while the University of Maine placed behind UNB on the women's side.

Following the senior tournament, the mats were turned over to the Eastern Canadian Championships. The event showcased the young talent that the region has to offer. New Brunswick had a strong showing at the event, as all six wrestling clubs earned individual medals, and five of the six team titles were awarded to New Brunswick teams.

Club de Lutte Acadie Bathurst earned three team titles including the Bantam / Cadet Boys and Girls divisions. CLAB also shared the Novice / Kids Girls team title with Red Rock Wrestling Club, of Montague, Prince Edward Island, as they tied in points and criteria. Other New Brunswick clubs to earn team titles were Mountaintop Wrestling Club in the Novice / Kids Boys Division, and Kent Wrestling Club, based out of Rexton, which secured the Junior / Juvenile Men's title.
